

Telemarketers should not be allowed to call my house if I don't want them to call me, and I DON'T WANT THEM CALLING. It's my phone, my time and my house they're calling. They do not take no for an answer and most of the time they tricks our seniors to sign up for things they don't want then harrass them for money. New Jersey Residents do not want them calling.